

ABOUT THE OWNER

Kimberly Koretoff is the owner and director of OT 4 Kids & The Therapeutic Learning Center. OT 4 Kids is a private practice that provides high quality therapy to children with and without special needs and Sensory Processing Disorders. We are housed within a beautiful 8,000 square foot, state of the art, pediatric center in Santa Monica, CA.

Kimberly holds her Doctorate in Occupational Therapy degree, received her Master's degree, as well as two undergraduate degrees from the top rated university for occupational therapy, the University of Southern California. She has extensive training in Sensory Integration and is also SIPT certified. She is also working towards her Advanced Practice in Swallowing, Assessment, and Intervention Certification (SWC), and has had experience working with children with oral motor and feeding sensitivities.

Kimberly has worked closely with a variety of top clinicians and professionals in the pediatric therapy business and has experience in a wide array of learning programs to help children struggling in school including: PACE (Processing & Cognitive Enhancement), AMPS (Attention, Memory & Processing Skills), The Listening Program, and Handwriting Without Tears. She also has had experience with professional and teacher in-service trainings, and local parent support groups.

